

Prof. Robert Amdur
Course Evaluation Summaries

Department of Political Science
Barnard College

These scores are computed from the anonymous student course evaluations officially collected by the Barnard Department of Political Science at the end of each course. The evaluation forms are tailored to the type of course: lecture course or colloquium, see "Evaluation Questions." The scores listed here are those averaged from the question summaries. Rankings are on a scale of 1 to 5, where 5 is "excellent."

POLS BC 3433, Colloquium on Democratic Political Theory and Ethics

Fall 2004: Total colloquium score: 4.29
Total instructor score: 4.55
Averages based on 8 responses out of an enrollment of 8.

Fall 1995: Total colloquium score: 4.40
Total instructor score: 4.92
Averages based on 6 responses.

POLS BC1013, Political Theory I

Fall 2002
Total lecture score: 4.45
Total instructor score: 4.49
Averages based on 48 responses out of an enrollment of 59.

POLS BC 3502, Colloquium on Comparative Political Movements

Spring 2001
Total colloquium score: 4.10
Total instructor score: 4.46
Averages based on 12 responses out of an enrollment of 16.