This Progress Report is meant to be an aid in planning your political science courses. As soon as you have declared the Political Science major, and then again during the spring program-planning period as a rising senior, consult your major advisor about your program and ask her or him to initial the approved courses.

Please make sure you seek the approval of the Department Representative or Chair for courses not taken at Barnard that you want to count toward the major requirement. (The two required colloquia and the two semesters of senior research seminar must be Barnard courses.) Use the Course Approval Request Form.

Hold on to your Progress Report until the second semester of your senior year when all courses for the major have been approved. At that point, please have your major advisor sign this report and submit it to the Department Administrator, Nell Dillon-Ermers. You may want to keep a copy for your own records.
