

BARNARD-COLUMBIA URBAN STUDIES PROGRAM
REQUIREMENT A/B COURSES OFFERED IN FALL 2009

These are the courses that are being offered in Fall 2009 that fulfill Requirements A and B of the Urban Studies curriculum. Please note that while it is based on the most current information available to us, this list is always subject to change; new courses are added to the list as they are brought to our attention. Also keep in mind that appropriate substitutions for curriculum requirements can be requested from the Director of the Urban Studies Program.

Requirement A Courses Offered in Fall 2009

Economics:

ECON W4228 Urban Economics

History:

HIST BC4791 Lagos: Pepper Farm to Megacity
HIST W3535 History of the City of New York

Political Science:

POLISW3245 Race and Ethnicity in American Politics
POLS V3313 American Urban Politics
URBS V3550 Community Building and Economic Development

Sociology:

SOCI V2420 Race and Place in Urban America
SOCI V3324 Poverty, Inequality, and Policy
SOCI W3912 Global Urbanism
URBS V3420 Introduction to Urban Sociology

Requirement B Courses Offered in Fall 2009

Architecture:

ARCH 3114 Making the Metropolis

Urban Studies:

URBS V3310 Science and Technology in Urban Environments